Chapter 1 by Christoph

Its a "hard knock life". September 25th 2013 i found myself at a university in the north of England, enrolled on a course of which i would have never saw myself being good at, but i wanted to prove a good point to my parents so i took on the challenge.

A year had gone by when i came into contact with the beautiful brown curly haired, green eyed girl. At first found that i was not attracted to this girl, but as soon as we began talking over time i became captured by her personality. we decided to take things further by meeting up and i tell you it was a lot of when we did. On most occasions we did nothing at all except talk and enjoyed each others company, we where young and 'in love'. The only problem was we could not speak to each other around other people.

7 months later and we had come a long way in getting to know each other, we where now "boyfriend and girlfriend" as they call it. Only to find that one day over a silly argument we fall out and two day later broke up.....
